I messaged Andrew about doing a shoot being completely new to this and he was highly informative and helpful in explaining to me all the details about what I'd be expected to do, the layout of the location, suggestions of outfits/styles etc. Considering it was my first shoot, I was a little nervous but he made me feel completely at ease and was so friendly and kind; allowing me to relax and feel more confident. I would definitely recommend Andrew as a fantastic photographer, not only were all the images great quality and beautifully edited but his regular communication was so reassuring and professional.

Andrew is a lovely photographer, he takes so much care and time with your poses and edits; and makes you feel comfortable at all times...he had some amazing ideas and receiving the edits back they look incredible. Andrew was very patient with me when I kept asking to re do poses cause I spotted things I didn't like about myself and he took the time to check I was 100% happy, and I am over the moon with the images I have had back so far :) I'm really looking forward to working with

I would most defiantly recommend Andrew to any model or agency. He is fantastic.

I have had two shoots with Andrew and both were fabulous. the first was a location shoot and the second a studio; I have only seen the original shoots and I'm itching to see the edited versions as they are already fantastic.

The work Andrew does as you can see is breath taking and I would love to shoot with him again, he is respectful, polite, funny, relaxed, and professional, I could go on and on but he is everything I would want a photographer to be...

He made me feel welcome, confident and at ease, he really is fantastic a great guy with great ideas and some great talent.

Thank you Andrew it's been a pleasure and can't wait to shoot with you again.
I would 150% recommend Andrew to anyone :))
